

Frank Grassler

VICE PRESIDENT OF TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT, UT SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL CENTER

Frank Grassler is an intellectual property, corporate, startup, and regulatory attorney and licensing executive, with more than 32 years of biopharma industry and academic experience in pharmaceuticals, law, and business, covering preparation, prosecution, licensing, technology transfer, startups, acquisitions, divestitures, portfolio management, and people management, as well as patent litigation for IP and technology transfer departments.

His technical areas have included chemical, biological, genetic, and mechanical inventions, including pharmaceuticals, biologicals, vaccines, monoclonal antibodies, clinical trial outcomes, novel materials, and mechanical & electromechanical devices. His regulatory work has covered university & hospital research, development, and clinical programs, and compliance with FDA, HIPAA, and FCPA.

His affiliations include G. D. Searle division of the Pfizer group, Merck & Co., Inc., GlaxoSmithKline, Gilead Sciences, Roche/Genentech, and the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center.